

The Undergraduate Curriculum Committee recommends approval of the following:

1. The minutes of the June 3, 2016 e-vote meeting.
2. New Courses

ACCT 430. Global Immersion in Accounting. (3-0). Credit 3. Combination of classroom work in the spring and a field trip to the selected country in summer; introduction to international opportunities within the public accounting firms; meet with former students to gain a local and corporate view of business in the selected country. Prerequisites: ACCT 327 and approval of instructor. Cross-listed with IBUS 430.

IBUS 430. Global Immersion in Accounting. (3-0). Credit 3. Combination of classroom work in the spring and a field trip to the selected country in summer; introduction to international opportunities within the public accounting firms; meet with former students to gain a local and corporate view of business in the selected country. Prerequisites: ACCT 327 and approval of instructor. Cross-listed with IBUS 430.

3. Change in Courses

SCSC 446. Weed Management and Ecology.

Lecture contact hours and semester credit hours

From: (3-2). Credit 4.

To: (2-2). Credit 3.

Prerequisites

From: CHEM 222, SCSC 307, junior or senior classification, or approval of instructor.

To: BIOL 111 or BIOL 101, junior or senior classification.

College of Engineering

Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering

ISEN course equivalencies

4. Change in Curriculum

College of Agriculture and Life Sciences

Department of Recreation, Park and Tourism Sciences

Minor in Park and Natural Resources Management

Minor in Tourism Management

College of Science

Department of Statistics

Minor in Statistics

5. Special Consideration

College of Agriculture and Life Sciences

Department of Recreation, Park and Tourism Sciences

Minor in Recreation, Park and Tourism Sciences

Request for a new minor

Minor in Youth Development

Request for a new minor

6. Tabled Items

Special Consideration

College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, Department of Biological and Agricultural Engineering, BS in Biological and Agricultural Engineering – revisions are on hold pending College of Engineering program changes.