2. Copyright Educational Materials

University acknowledges professors' research and educational materials are their intellectual property and therefore are copyrightable. Should a statement be a part of minimum syllabus requirements that information produced by instructor are copyrighted materials? This will also need to be a discussion held with the Faculty Senate.

3. Review of catalog update memo for SACSCOC (Dr. Mike Stephenson)

Memo states catalog program overview tab should implement an overview of the study based on discipline and include a statement for mode of delivery of geographical location (programs offered in other location other than College Station campus). Catalog is open for updates until March 6, 2020.

December 16, 2019 - E-Vote for Qatar programs, Qatar courses and Aggie Achieve course

Updating QT programs (for Fall 2020) to match the current CS programs. The updates unfortunately did not make the UCC deadline for the regular meeting. In addition, INST 210 is adding zero credit for the Aggie Achieves certificate program. The following courses and programs were approved.
